Foreword

The Annual Staff is proud to present the 1955 edition of Maple Leaves — We have tried to depict the classes, the events and organizations that have contributed so much to our education at Dublin High. Also we have attempted to recapture the spirit which has served as an inspiration and has given us courage to overcome many a hurdle. We hope this annual will help keep alive the friendships and memories that we shared with the students and teachers during the years at Dublin. May we thank all the students and faculty members who helped us by being so co-operative, and patient during the production of this yearbook.

Dedication

It is with much appreciation that we dedicate the 1955 edition of Maple Leaves to Mr. Arthur H. Weihrer, music instructor, for his work in elevating the music department of our school. Each student and parent takes pride in the performances of our band and chorus. Also Mr. Weihrer looks ahead and has done much work in Pulaski County in the elementary schools that will promote better music in years to come. He has been exceedingly helpful and understanding of every student. The school is indebted to him for his many hours of hard work and his ability to place his heart and hands behind a job in order to see it well done.

ADMINISTRATION

The 1955 Faculty

This year the Dublin High School faculty has grown to thirty-three members. We are proud of our departmental expansions in that we are offering industrial arts, Latin, art, and public speaking for the first time. Additional courses have been added in the Business Department. This area has been expanded to offer a fairly complete business course for the first time. The Industrial Arts Department opened in the fall and is housed in the Agricultural Building. This department promises to grow as more equipment and courses are offered. The Music Department has made a great deal of progress and is beginning to feel increased strength each year. We are pleased to have passed our first birthday in our new school, and feel that we have overcome many perils that come with the organization of a large consolidated school.

The graduating class of 1954-55 with 115 members is the largest in the history of Dublin High School. This is the second class to graduate after the consolidation of Draper and Dublin. To each of us it was a real thrill to say after June 1954 that we were D.H.S. Seniors. There was lots of hard work; but we didn't mind because it helped us to develop our sense of responsibility, and our ability to lead and learn. There were also many social activities that provided a glorious time for all — such as the senior play, a Christmas formal, junior-senior banquet, and the senior prom. Now we leave high school with regrets. However, we shall also remember that graduation ends with commencement and we hope for each of us it is the beginning of greater things to come.

Our Last Will

Being of sound body (we aren't too sure about the mind), we, the Senior Class on this 16th day of May, 1955, wish to leave some of our most cherished possessions to those who follow us. WARNING! Watch out for the booby traps.

First, it seems that most of our senior bus drivers must part with their faithful busses. ARCHIE ALDERMAN leaves his bus to Junior Dishon; TOMMY LONG'S No. 10 to Hassel Sumner; to Bill's Junk Yard goes KENNETH MONTGOMERY'S bus No. 18; and MAVEN ALEXANDER is going so far as to leave his bus driver's job to Scott Wilkerson.

Some people may not believe this, but the class of '55 certainly does have lots of ability! If you don't believe it — just read this. We have so much, we're even leaving it to those who are less fortunate — RANDALL BANE'S ability to learn goes to Dallas Cressel (who needs it badly); KENNETH BRATTON'S ability to get along with Mrs. Meadows to Bobby Staley; JENNY LOU BROWN'S ability to play basketball (and her big mouth) to Becky Gunn; a soprano voice and the ability to get a ride home is left to Bonnie Rankin and Louise Felts by DAWN COX. ELLA GOINS is kind enough to give her ability to catch a man to Georgie Nester. Sammy Skeens is the lucky recipient of JUNIOR HUTTON'S ability to get along with his teachers, while DONALD JARRELLS is leaving his ability to get along with Mr. Bradner to Wed Duncan. MARY LAWSON desires to present Louise Felts with her ability to get along with Mrs. Arey; DUANE DISHON'S ability to get along with math teachers is left to Junion Dishon; MARTHA WHORLEY'S ability to get along with certain senior teachers is left to Dorothy Franklin; DAVID WILLIAMS' ability to get along with Coach Gibbs to Bill Hylton; COLLEEN SHOCKLEY'S ability to get along with people and her stubborness to her sister, Velma; JUNE SHEETS' ability to argue in Student Council meetings to Joe Hale; JAMES LEFLER'S ability to get along with people to Donald Burnette; BOBBIE MOREFIELD'S ability to get along with Mrs. Arey to Becky Gunn and her scatter brains to anyone that finds them; JEAN BLANKENSHIP'S ability to get an airman to Mary Eunice Tickle.

DIVERS MORRIS is actually giving up his ability to argue in politics to Joe Hale, who already has a good start. To Donna Faye Blevins from JIMMY WILLIAMS comes a great desire and ability to just argue. Period!

The remainder of our abilities include: BETHEL NEESE'S ability to graduate to Peggy Ramsey Holt; ALMA LYON'S ability to put oil in a Studebaker to Dawn McCraw; KITTY CULLIP'S ability to drive to her sister, Wilmina; CARL FORBES' ability to run to Bob Moore; HELEN ELDRIDGE'S ability to drive (?) to Shirley Ratcliffe.; TOMMY GAKING'S ability to pass chemistry and take it for the second year to Darlene Bays; DONALD LAWTON'S ability to make hook shots to Larry Williams; ROBERT GOAD'S ability to win at "poker" to Leon Overstreet and his position on the basketball team to "Bull" Cochran.

TEDDY BEASLEY seems to have a certain ability to get into trouble, and he's leaving it to Bill Luckado, who seems to be doing pretty good himself. FAYE HARRELL is doing the opposite — she's leaving her ability to stay out of trouble to her sister, Wanda.

Do you need manners? Sense? Change of heart? Well, we'll see what we can do for you. MARY AKERS leaves her quiet manner to Dawn McCraw; ALTA CHRISLEY'S quietness goes to Becky Gunn; BILL INGLES' brains (?) to Johnny Tucker, and his love to Linda Sweet; ANNIE JARRELLS' bird brains to anyone who needs them; JAMES JONES' knowledge of music to Huston Sayers; BERMAN LINKOUS' grades to anyone who makes lower than he does; JO ANN MEREDITH'S desire to finish school to her sister, Daisey McCoy; LORETTA O'DELLS' "silliness" to Patsy Farris and her sister, Darlene, if they can divide it; JAMES POWERS' ambition to finish school, no matter how long it takes him, to his brother, Aubrey; GLENNA SHELTON'S invisible brain to Maxine Phillips, if she can find it; RAYMOND THOMPSON'S nice manners (?) to Donald Farley.

Did we miss you? Well, maybe we can do something for you in the way of looks. BERNICE COMBS' height to Margaret Eads; ELIZABETH DALTON'S big mouth to Mary Lyn Akers (does she need it?); MARY ELLEN DEAN'S brown hair to Becky (Red) Gunn; ANGELINE FARMER'S "general-electric flame" to anyone crazy enough to want it, and lucky enough to get it (this could mean you); ELDON GOFORTH'S height to Donna Faye Blevins, and his nickname, "Goofey" to Doris Farmer and Barbara McCoy; JOYCE HARLER'S big mouth and her silly giggles to Lois Crigger; MYRTLE HARRELL'S brown hair to Billy Joe Friend; FLETA HAYES'S curly hair and height (?) to her sister, Betty Margaret; BESSIE HOWELL'S 5' 10" to Margaret Eads, so she won't get run over by the 3:15 bus bound jets; JANE HUBBLE'S long hair to Sandy Duncan, so that she won't get cold on the bus next year; PAT JACKSON'S height to "Rooster" Tolbert, and her friendship with a boy to Kay Ford; ELLIES MORAN'S straight, black hair to David "Curly" Wilson; MARJORIE NESTER'S long, curly hair and her height to her sister, Jean; JERRY RIGNEY'S long hair to Floyd Cox to keep his ears warm;

ARNOLD THORNTON'S shortness to Cleton Simpkins; HUBERT TURMAN'S height to Dallas Cressel; ROBERT TURMAN'S "Specks" to anyone who really wants or needs them; FREDA VEST'S height and blond curly hair to anyone who wants them, and PEGGY WARDEN'S long hair to Nancy Weikel Martin.

Well, we've still got lots to give away! For instance, books, clothes, — teachers! Check these bargains — CLINE BOITNOTT'S seat in Mrs. Meadows' English class to Pete Boone; CHARLES CAMPBELL'S seat in Mr. Simpson's English class to Bill Tiffany; JERRY COVEY'S current events in government class to anybody else who can get around as much as he does. (You'll have to be good!) RUBY DALTON'S back seat on the bus to Wed Duncan; HARRY GILES' favorite English teacher, Mrs. Meadows, to Leon Overstreet; the seat in the senior class of JAY HARRIS to someone brave and intelligent; SUE HUBBARD'S majorette uniform to Clara Saul and her government book to Faye Garay; NANCY LANCASTER'S place in Mrs. Meadows English class to Maxine Shelburne; ALFRED LAWSON'S government book to "Pecker Wood" Boyd; PAULINE LESTER'S knitting needles and books to Thelma Hall; MARY MARTIN'S front seat in Mrs. Nye's 5th period study hall to Maxine Shelburne; AGNES MICOU'S cotillion pin to Joey Whitaker and her cheerleading uniform to some lucky junior; MARTHA NESTER'S long, lost government book to her sister, Georgia, if she can find it; HELEN O'DELL'S "crazy, mixed up" history book to Mary Moore and her position as co-captain of the basketball team to Joyce Rose; JERRY O'DELL'S locker room basket to the person who so delighted in stealing its contents; HERMAN PIFER'S heater in his car to Loretta Morris (Armstrong?); SHELVIA SAUL'S place in old D.H.S. to her sister, Clara; ANNA SUMNER'S seat in Mr. Simpson's English class to some bold junior; JOYCE TAYLOR'S many good times at D.H.S. to Shelby Simpkins; ZEBBIE THOMPSON'S bass horn to anyone who is big enough to play it; EDGAR TURMAN'S seat in government class to Melvin Martin; EVERETT WEBB'S books to anyone who will rent them; ETHEL WOOD'S seat in the corner section of the band to anyone who can get and appreciate it; SANDRA WHITE'S "on the beat, go get 'em, bring 'em back alive" Student Patrols to Joey Whitaker and Tenny Boone, and her long telephone conversations to Alecia Apperson.

It could be that we could do you a favor and will to you some of our positions. So, here goes — from CARTER ANDERSON, here's the presidency of the senior class to some lucky, deserving junior; MAY BELLE COX'S position as typist for Miss Allison to her sister, Edith; SHIRLEY EDWARD'S position on the basketball team to Janet Jameson; TOM HAMILTON'S position as co-captain of the football team to Leon "Footsie Birdie Firebug" Overstreet; AUBREY HICKMAN'S position as "Bones" in the annual chorus minstrel and his girl troubles to Bill Hylton (is this a favor); JOHN HUDDLE'S membership in the Beta Club to his sister, Shirley; PHYLLIS KEISTER'S position on the basketball team to Mary Lou Tickle and her ability to get addresses to Betty Lou Dodson; IRENE LAWSON'S membership in the Beta Club to her sister, Rosella; EUNICE O'DELL'S seat in the Beta Club to Richard O'Dell and the urge to try for it to Dorothy Tate; MARGARET RIGNEY'S position as co-captain of the girls' basketball team to Alma Quesenberry; SYLVIA PHILLIPS' place to her sister, Essie; LELIA SUTPHIN'S position as co-captain of cheerleading squad to Joey Whitaker and co-editor of the annual to Teddy Ferguson.

Well, all we have left is love, and who doesn't want that? We leave — CHARLES DUNCAN'S love for Pulaski girls to Harold Ward, who seems to be doing pretty fair already; PATSY FIORE'S love for soldiers to her sister, Dreama, and love for bookkeeping to Jean Keister and Shirley Scott; BRANARD FLINCHUM'S love for Pulaski girls to Ralph Jones and love for baseball to his brother, Wallace; COLLEEN LONG'S love for junior boys to anyone who feels they can get them; JUANITA MARSHALL'S love for a dark-haired, blue-eyed boy to Freda Smythers and the name "Black Boy" to Richard Webb; BETTY MUSTARD'S love for a certain blue-eyed boy to Nancy Roope and Janet Montgomery, if they can get him; RAYMOND O'DELL'S love for all girls to Teddy Cox; BETTY RADFORD'S love for all soldiers to Lois Pennington; PAULINE ROBERTSON'S love for school to her brother, David; ARBBRADEAN OSBORNE'S love for Pulaski to Geneva Lester; GENEVIEVE SCAGG'S love for hillbilly music to Mary Wickline; GERALINE SUTPHIN'S love for Big Creek to Martha Martin; ALLEN TRUSSLER'S love and desire to study (?) to Bill Hatcher; and all of TOM INGLES' love to Tenny Boone.

Last, but not least, the entire Senior Class leaves its pleasant memories of a wonderful year to every underclassmen. Good luck!

Signed: THE SENIOR CLASS.

Class Prophecy

This is the city — Big Town U.S.A. We are private investigators. It is the year 1965. We're investigating the effect of 115 seniors from Dublin High School on the universe of today. The names and places have not been changed, as we are only after the facts.

We are now taking off in our rocket ship. We're going to tour the universe in order to get a lead on these people. We are now flying over Mars. We have our sterophonic television tuned in so that we may see all that goes on below. Aha! Do we detect a familiar face? Yes, it is none other than Jean Blankenship, owner of the Zoom Zoomerettes, giving orders to a few of her pilots, Teddy Beasley, Archie Alderman, Jerry Covey and Charles Campbell. One of her rockets is just taking off. When we look inside, we see Jenny Lou Brown returning to earth after her honeymoon on the moon. (Logical? We guess so.) Also we see Pat Jackson gazing contentedly out of the window into space. She is very happy about her new accomplishment as she just obtained enough green cheese from the moon to supply the lunch room of D.H.S. for one year. Berman Linkous and Bernice Combs are being made comfortable by Helen Eldridge, Marjorie Nester, and Sue Hubbard, expert rocket hostesses. In competition with the Zoom Zoomerettes we have Eldon Goforth's Plutonian Rockets with Jerry O'Dell, Everett Webb, Hubert Turman, and Raymond O'Dell employed as pilots.

Next, we go to Pluto where we encounter a drastic new change in government. Sitting at the presidential desk in the Blue House is Carter Anderson dictating to his secretaries, Elizabeth Dalton, Jo Ann Meredith, and Loretta O'Dell. (He must be a speed demon!) His cabinet seems to have a slight feminine touch. Some of its most important members are Margaret Rigney, Genevieve Scaggs, Joyce Taylor, Jane Hubble, Irene Lawson, Faye Harrell, Patsy Fiore, and Shirley Edwards. Some of the old Dublin grads are now outstanding members of the Plutonian Congress. These honest (?) politicians are Maven Alexander, David Williams, Donald Jarrells, and Kenneth Bratton. Myrtle Harrell, who is employed as head librarian in the Congressional Library, is kept busy supervising her assistants, Annie Jarrells, Ruby Dalton, and Shelvia Saul. We now go to the Supreme Court of Pluto where we find Chief Justice Jay "Bird" Harris presiding over a Saturday morning session of court, while court stenographer, Bessie Howell is busily taking notes. It seems that Jimmy Williams, an outstanding lawyer, is at his wits end pleading the case of Electrician Zebbie Thompson, who electrocuted (was it accidental?) his unsuspecting wife. Attorney for the court is no other than brilliant June "Win Every Case" Sheets. We waited to see the next case in which we were surprised to see another one of our old friends — the dignified (?) president of General Electric Company, Early Huddle. (By the way, he was 10 minutes late). It seems he had swindled his helicopter pilot, Kenneth Montgomery, out of some of his hard earned wages.

We dropped around to some of the local vitamin pill farms, where we saw Edgar Turman, Duane Dishon, Arnold Thornton, and Robert Turman frantically trying to get the crop harvested in time to attend the annual athletic events, which are held in the famous "Rocky Jones Memorial Stadium." Not wanting to miss this opportunity, we opened the speed regulator to 3000 miles an hour and in a very, very short time we arrived at the stadium. Helen O'Dell's famous girls' basketball team, "The Supersonic Shooters," had just taken a thrilling decision from Phyllis Keister's "Atomic Bums." Donald Lawton, a space renowned professional basketball star, acted as referee. He was assisted by Tom Hamilton, the sparkling star of the "Space Pigskinners." The next event of the day was a remote control horse race in which the speed demon of the race track, James "Glued To The Saddle" Lefler came in first for an astounding victroy. As we were gazing around in awe, our eyes fell upon four exuberant, joyful people whom we soon recognized as Cline Boitnott, Herman Pifer, Branard Flinchum, and Allen Trussler. Their only problem seemed to be securing a container for all the filthy lucre (we used to call it money) which the outcome of the race afforded them. The unfortunate losers were James Jones, Carl Forbes, and Divers "Mighty Mouse" Morris.

Feeling rather tired, we decided to relax and listen to "Pop Time" on channel ZIPO starring Aubrey "The Fisher" Hickman. His guests for the performance were to be Dawn Cox, well known opera singer; Fleta "Liberace" Hayes, famous pianist; and Ethel "Cool Cat" Wood, a talented jazz artist. While consulting our space paper for program changes, we noticed that the next scheduled program was "Space Singers Hoedown," featuring Alma Lyons and Freda Vest with some of that good old Plutonian picking and singing.

Class Prophecy

As we were leaving Pluto heading for Jupiter, we decided to take the quickest route, which was the modern transplantental spaceway built by Ellies Moran and his assistants, Junior Hutton, Bill Ingles, James Powers, Alfred Lawson, and Tom Ingles, all of whom are prominent engineers. The project was financed by Charles Duncan, who had just become sole heir to Mr. John D. Stonefriends billions.

Upon arriving in Jupiter, we decided to go watch the review of Space Cadets which was to be held at the training ground. As the long ranks of cadets marched past us, we were not surprised to recognize quite a few of them. We saw Martha Nester, Anna Sumner, Colleen Long, and Glenna Shelton wearing the colorful pink and red uniforms of a space nurse. Tom Long, Randall Bane, and Harry Giles were wearing the more subdued (if you want to call it that) tones of green and blue which signified that they were now captains in the Space Cadet Corps. After the cadets had gone past, we decided to look around to see if we could get any clues on the rest of the 1955 graduating class. As we passed a new housing development we spotted a very industrious housewife, who was trying to learn how to work the servants (to explain we might call the servants — robots) and to keep an eye on the kids who were noisely refusing to eat their green pill for lunch. As we looked closer, we saw that she was none other than Agnes Micou. As we went on we saw Betty Radford, Mary Dean, Pauline Robertson, Ella Goins, Pauline Lester, Bethel Neese, and Nancy Lancaster — all old classmates of ours, but now busy wives and mothers.

As we still had plenty of time we decided to check up on Eunice O'Dell and Peggy Warden. After a few false leads, we were directed to the local church, where we found them busily working as secretaries to the local minister. Still having plenty of time, we began tracing Juanita Marshall, Geraline Sutphin, Mary Martin, Martha Whorley, and Arbbradeen Osborne. It did not take us long to find them. They were busy teaching the new generation of space imps (we used to call 'em brats), but nevertheless we interrupted them and had quite a long chat. They were nice enough to drop a few tips about some more of the gang. By following their leads we soon located Tommy Gaking, who had chosen medicine as his profession. He was now a doctor at the local "Cure 'Em or Kill 'Em" — in other words, hospital. Working as his assistants and nurses were Sylvia Phillips, Kitty Cullip, Mary Lawson, Joyce Harler and Bobbie Morefield. Looking into the lab, we saw Colleen Shockley working as an X-ray technician. As we were feeling sort of nauseated we thought we had better change to a more pleasant scene, so we did what any normal (?) mature (?) woman would do. We decided to give up sleuthing for a while and go shopping. As we casually sauntered through the Global Department Store, we accidentally bumped into Betty Jane Mustard, Angeline Farmer, and May Belle Cox who were working as models for those unexcelled fashion designers, Mary Akers and Alta Christley. They invited us to have a spaceburger and 3-D soda with them, but we were unable to accept because it was time for us to return to Earth. We hurried to our rocket, opened the speed regulator and headed for Earth; but we could not go home yet, for we had one more stop to make. That stop was at D.H.S. to look it over and see the changes that had been made in the last 10 years. When we got to Dublin High, we again tuned in our sterophonic television. We finally got it focused on Mrs. Meadows' English class, and whom do you think we saw? Poor Mrs. Meadows was still trying to drill English into Robert Goad, Jerry Rigney, and Raymond Thompson.

After one last look around, we decided that the effects on the Universe of the 1955 graduating class of Dublin High had, on the whole, been excellent. We could not indict or arrest anyone so we, at last, headed for home.

If you ever need two excellent private eyes, just call us up. You'll find us in Big Town U.S.A. in a large office building. We are known as the "Interplanet Space Snoopers." By now you are probably wondering how we got all of our expert training, so we shall enlighten you — People say training starts in the home — so here's a good example. While we count the pills for supper our minds are filled with new and helpful methods of investigation by our faithful husbands — Jack Webb and Frank Smith.

To a junior school begins to have a new meaning. As we have passed the half-way mark, we are beginning to see graduation in the offing and begin to feel a greater realization of high school. The junior class play was a big success. David Wilson was the star in ELMER as he displayed an acute case of "teenageritis." We were all agog as we entertained the seniors at the junior-senior banquet. "Profile of Tomorrow" was the theme and it was effectively carried out in purple and white.

The Maple Leaves Staff presents the 1955 edition of our annual with both pride and apologies. We hope that our hard work, the deadlines we had to meet, the photographs taken, the classes we interrupted, the rejected and endless copies we had to make, have evolved into a publication that will always pleasantly remind each of us of good years we have spent together at Dublin High School.

The Student Council is affiliated with the National Student Council Association, which represents schools all over the United States. The Dublin SCA works with the administration on school policies, regulations, and activities. The membership consists of the five major officers and one representative from each home room. During the year the Student Council has adopted a new constitution, provided recreation at lunch time for the students, and played host to the New River District meeting of the SCA on February 4, 1955.

The Student Patrol is the law enforcing body of our school, which consists of the officers, and one representative from each home room. The purpose is to maintain order and good conduct within our school. For the violators, they have court proceedings as often as necessary. They hope to achieve a worthy, outstanding name for our school from their work and effort.

The 4-H Club program is set up by the Agricultural Extension Service and is sponsored by the county home demonstration agent. The school program provides a follow up of home projects, sponsors trips to county, district, and state meetings, and provides a variety of activities that promote better growth and development of farm boys and girls.

The Dublin High School Band has participated in a number of local, district, and state activities during the year. They were represented in All State Western Division Concert Band by Billy Anderson, Teddy Beasley, and Margaret Hatfield; and in Workshop Band by Y. W. Ayers, Sue Gott, Bill Hylton, Carl Pascal, Gina Poplin, and Ann Wood. The band also organized a dance band for the first time which played for the three performances of the minstrel. The major spring events were attending the District Festival in Roanoke in March and presented a joint concert with the chorus in May.

Chorus

Under the direction of Mr. A. H. Weihrer, the chorus carried out a great variety of musical activities during the year. This year they have appeared in a number of assembly programs, given three performances at the annual minstrel, "The Duke's Folly." Four members represented the chorus in the All State Chorus in Roanoke on February 18. During the spring the chorus gave a concert with the band and attended the county music festival held at Pulaski High School.

Science Club

The Dublin High School Chapter of the Science Clubs of America was organized to promote a more widespread interest in science. As a club they have been very creditable, having given a spring exhibition in the school, also entering and attending the annual science exhibition which was held in Roanoke. They also sponsored a Halloween Dance in the gym, which was very successful, and they won first prize in the Homecoming Parade. Several exhibits from Dublin were entered in the Science Fair held at Pulaski High School in February.

Varsity Football

The 1954 football season opened when the Dukes played Wytheville on our home field. The Dukes scored a 25-0 decision over the favored Maroons, which overstunned foes to thrill the home fans. The rest of the season followed with only one more win. This was when Dublin beat Hillsville 32-0. Although the Bobcats from Radford scored a 27-6 victory over the Dukes, the game proved to be very exciting when Childress scored the first touchdown in the game. There were seven lettermen on the varsity squad of twenty-two players, and the team was built around the group with no one player being singled out as a key performer. Robert Goad and Carroll Hamilton, co-captains, showed their spectacular playing ability as halfbacks. Tom Ingles and Aubrey Hickman, two lanky ends, played outstanding performances in offense as well as defense. The homecoming game which stimulated students school spirit to the fullest, was one of the most exciting and colorful games of the season. The game proved to be a real thriller as the Dukes lost to Christiansburg Demons by a close 7 to 6 verdict.

Junior Varsity Football

The Junior Varsity went through its five game schedule undefeated. The team was composed of all ninth graders and the fact that they were not defeated can be contributed to the desire and hustle by each member of the squad. The team was undefeated, untied, and unscored on until the last game of the season when they met another undefeated, untied, and unscored on team — Radford. Then the Baby Dukes came off the field a 14-12 winner in a thrilling game.

Eighth Grade Football

Eighth grade football made its debut at Dublin High School this fall with twenty candidates and a five game schedule. Led by Co-Captains Wallace Bruce and Bob Rigney and directed by Jerry Loar, a promising young field general, the team was able to win three of the five games while losing twice to the eleven from Radford. The backfield, composed of Loar, Ball, Bruce and Rigney, had all the qualities needed for the Split-T offense. Five plays were dominated by the two tackles, LaFon and Elledge, while the center post was maintained by the smallest man on the team, Danny Tickle. Other outstanding performances were turned in by Bullion, McMullen, McCoy and Keister.

Girl's Basketball Team

First Row: Jenny Lou Brown, Joyce Rose, Margaret Rigney, Helen O'Dell, Hattie Taylor. Second Row: Janet Meredith, Nancy Chinault, Sylvia Phillips, Phyllis Keister, Dawn Quesenberry, Teddy Ferguson, Irene Lawson, Mrs. Virginia Arey. Third Row: Lillie Lyons, Sylvia O'Dell, Jo Ann Bishop, Shirley Tolbert, Bonnie Rankin, Shirley Edwards, Jo Ann Holt, Patsy Lilly.

The girls basketball team began practice November 8 with approximately fifty girls. A team of fifteen and a substitute team of five were chosen from this group with Dawn Cox as manager. The guards had a very successful season with a zone defense, but the team as a whole was inexperienced and found the experienced opponents difficult to cope with this year. Five freshmen and eight juniors on the team will be with us again next year, and we are looking forward to a good future in basketball.

Varsity Basketball

The Basketeers of Dublin High School played their second season of basketball and closed out the campaign by winning seven and losing thirteen. The Dukes started the season very slowly and gained momentum as the schedule progressed. They picked up most of their victories in the second half of the campaign. The Dukes claimed two victories each over Wytheville, Hillsville, and Pembroke and one over arch rival Pulaski. The team was led throughout the season by their captain, Donald Lawton, who was consistently high scorer and ended up the season with a total of 274 points, an average of 13.7 per game. The next best point getter was Co-Captain Robert Goad with a total of 156 points. Bill Belcher and Kenneth Duncan, besides playing outstanding floor games, racked up 113 and 80 points respectively. Bill Tiffany and Harold Ward alternated at the forward post and scored 49 and 45 points respectively. Carter Anderson also saw a lot of action and contributed 28 points to the Dukes offense. Of this team, four members are in the graduating class and will be missed next season. The student body of Dublin High School can be justly proud of this team. Although their record was not outstanding, their character, spirit, and good sportsmanship was a credit to the school whenever they performed.

Junior Varsity Basketball

The Dublin High School Junior Varsity basketball team started the 1954-55 season with fifteen members, all freshmen who had little or no experience in interscholastic basketball competition. The team, headed by Captain Bobby Webb, a veteran of one year's play, and a fine athlete, started slowly and lost the first seven contests before slipping into the winning column.

The team has bright prospects for placing several players on the varsity team next year. James Cochran, a rookie in basketball, came along fast and should play a good brand of basketball after a little more experience. Donnie Bain, John Edwards, Jackie Compton, and Ted Anderson all showed a good competitive spirit and demonstrated the qualities of good athletes.

1954 Baseball

Springtime brought baseball to Dublin again and the Dukes waded into a representative 13-game schedule and emerged on the long end of a 9-4 record. Led by Co-Captains Morgan and Linkous, the team won from all competitions except Blacksburg and Fries. McMillian and King were mainstays on the mound while Donnelly, Deck, Linkous, Hawley, and Thompson rounded out the infield. In the outfield there was Morgan, Overstreet, and Goad. Able support was given by Anderson, King, Hickman, and Carter.
